The Fund

The Fund is a closed-end investment trust designed to provide investors with Canadian dollar exposure to the long-term performance of gold bullion and gold equity securities, while providing monthly distributions. The units are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol GPF.UN. To accomplish its objectives the Fund invests its net assets in the Gold sector with up to 50 percent in shares of SPDR Gold Trust, an exchange-traded fund that seeks to track the price of gold by investing directly in gold bullion and the balance in a portfolio of equity securities selected from the S&P/TSX Global Gold Index, a dynamic international benchmark of the world's leading gold companies.

The Fund employs a proprietary investment strategy, Strathbridge Selective Overwriting (“SSO”), to enhance the income generated by the portfolio and to reduce volatility. The Fund may, from time to time, selectively write covered call options in respect of up to a maximum of 25 percent of the securities in the portfolio. In addition, the Fund may write cash covered put options in respect of securities in which it is permitted to invest.

The SSO strategy is a quantitative, technical based methodology that identifies appropriate times to write and/or close out option positions compared to writing continuously and rolling options every thirty days. This proprietary process has been developed over many years through various market cycles. The Manager believes the primary benefit to investors is to maximize the total return of the particular portfolio while reducing the level of volatility of the portfolio, thereby increasing the risk-adjusted return.

Transition to International Financial Reporting Standards Accounting Policies

The Fund has adopted International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) accounting policies for the year beginning January 1, 2014 as required by Canadian securities legislation and the Canadian Accounting Standards Board. Previously, the Fund prepared its financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (“Canadian GAAP”). Under Canadian GAAP, the Fund measured the fair values of its investments in accordance with Section 3855, Financial Instruments - Recognition and Measurement, which is determined by the closing bid price for long positions and by the closing ask price for short positions from the recognized stock exchange on which the securities are listed or principally traded. Under IFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement, the fair value of investments is to be based on a price within the bid-ask spread. It also allows the use of certain pricing conventions such as last traded prices as a practical expedient for fair value measurements within a bid-ask spread. Note 5 to the financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2014 discloses the impact of the transition to IFRS on the Fund's reported financial position, financial performance and cash flows, including the nature and effect of significant changes in accounting policies from those used in the Fund's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013 prepared under Canadian GAAP.

(2) Total increase (decrease) from operations consists of interest and dividend revenue, realized and unrealized gain (loss), net of withholding tax and foreign exchange gain (loss), less expenses and is calculated based on the weighted average number of units outstanding during the period. The schedule is not intended to total to the ending net assets as calculations are based on the weighted average number of units outstanding during the period.

(3) Distributions to unitholders are based on the number of units outstanding on the record date for each distribution. For 2010,

In August 2009, the Fund realized issuance costs of $1,903,500 in connection with its issuance of 2,350,000 units and 2,350,000 warrants. The MER for 2009 including these issuance costs is 8.79%.

(2) Portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of investments, excluding short-term investments, divided by the average value of the portfolio securities. The Fund employs an option overlay strategy which can result in higher portfolio turnover by virtue of option exercises, when compared to a conventional equity mutual fund.

As a result of the adoption of IFRS, for June 30, 2014, the net assets per unit presented in the financial statements and the net asset value per unit calculated weekly are both valued at closing prices. For all years ended December 31, the net assets per unit presented in the financial statements differs from the net asset value per unit calculated weekly, primarily as a result of investments being valued at bid prices for financial statements purposes and at closing prices for weekly net asset value purposes.

Past Performance

The following chart sets out the Fund's year-by-year past performance. It is important to note that the:

- (1) information shown assumes that all distributions (including deemed distributions based on the intrinsic value of the warrants exercised prior to the expiry date of the warrants) made by the Fund during these periods were reinvested in units of the Fund,
- (2) information does not take into account sales, redemptions, distributions or other optional charges that would have reduced returns, and
- (3) past performance of the Fund does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Year-By-Year Returns

The following bar chart illustrates how the Fund's total return varied from year to year for each of the past five years and for the six months ended June 30, 2014. The chart also shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on January 1 or the date of inception in 2009 would have increased or decreased by the end of the fiscal year or June 30, 2014 for the six months ended.

Portfolio Manager Report

Gold prices started the year trending positively as the price rebounded from oversold levels due to a gradual unwind of short positions. Gold then continued to climb higher to the middle of March as a result of geopolitical unrest in Ukraine. The Federal Reserve meeting in March prompted a reversal in the price of gold as market participants refocused their attention on the current state of the U.S. economic recovery and its growth story going forward as well as the further withdrawal of monetary stimulus in terms of asset purchases. Gold prices traded in a range from a low of US$1,201 on January 1, 2014 to a high of US$1,392 on March 17, 2014.

When investors look at the fundamental reasons for a bullish view on gold, they continue to see stimulative monetary policies albeit less than before. There was also a high demand for gold from China over the first half of the year, especially retail demand for jewellery. The positive performance in the gold price usually leads to net investment inflows to Gold Exchange Traded Funds (“ETFs”) resulting in a self-fulfilling bullish cycle. Finally, geopolitical tensions both in Ukraine and the Middle East do not show signs of dissipating and should continue to be a source of support for gold prices. On the negative side, demand for gold from India has been lackluster due to import duty hikes imposed to deal with the widening trade deficit in India. Generally, a bearish view is now harder to visualize as some of the deflationary risks of Europe are slowly being dealt with by the recent move by the European Central Bank lowering deposit rates in negative territory to stimulate lending activities.

Gold equities have rebounded with a strong positive performance in the first half of this year after being decimated with severe double digit negative returns in the previous year. During the first half of the year, the S&P/TSX Global Gold Index had a total return of 26.4 percent while in comparison, the SPDR Gold Trust had a total return of 10.6 percent in Canadian dollar terms. Gold stocks are trading at extremely low valuation levels with the expectation that the operating environment of gold mining companies would continue to be challenging should gold prices hover around these levels. Cuts to capital expenditures and exploration costs plus high grading are helping near-term margins and the possibility of mergers and consolidations could possibly set a floor with respect to valuations. The S&P/TSX Global Gold Index currently consists of 37 members as opposed to 50 members from a year ago.

The return of the Fund, including reinvestment of distributions, for the six months ended June 30, 2014 was 15.0 percent. The Fund ended the period with a cash position of 2.4 percent.

During the six month period, the allocation to the SPDR Gold Trust was between 50 percent at the high to about 30 percent at the low end with the balance invested in Gold equities and cash. Volatility for the Gold universe continued to decline through the year although volatility in this sector is much higher than the general market. On average for the first half of the year, the Fund was written on 4.3 percent of the portfolio and ended June 30, 2014 with no covered call position and 10.3 percent of the portfolio protected with puts. The net realized loss on options attributable to Strathbridge Selective Overwriting (“SSO”) strategy amounted to $0.02 per unit as compared to a net realized gain on options of $0.05 per unit a year ago.

The U.S. dollar exposure in the Fund was fully hedged back to the Canadian dollars.

Gold Participation and Income Fund

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2014

1. Fund Information

Gold Participation and Income Fund (the “Fund”) is a closed-end investment trust established under the laws of the Province of Ontario on July 27, 2009. The Fund began operations on August 7, 2009. The address of the Fund’s registered office is 121 King Street West, Suite 2600, Toronto, Ontario.

The Fund is a closed-end investment trust designed to provide investors with Canadian dollar exposure to the long-term performance of gold bullion and gold equity securities, while providing monthly distributions. The units are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol GPF.UN. To accomplish its objectives the Fund invests its net assets in the Gold sector with up to 50 percent in shares of SPDR Gold Trust, an exchange-traded fund that seeks to track the price of gold by investing directly in gold bullion and the balance in a portfolio of equity securities selected from the S&P/TSX Global Gold Index, a dynamic international benchmark of the world’s leading gold companies.

The Fund employs a proprietary investment strategy, Strathbridge Selective Overwriting (“SSO”), to enhance the income generated by the portfolio and to reduce volatility. The Fund may, from time to time, selectively write covered call options in respect of up to a maximum of 25 percent of the securities in the portfolio. In addition, the Fund may write cash covered put options in respect of securities in which it is permitted to invest.

The SSO strategy is a quantitative, technical based methodology that identifies appropriate times to write and/or close out option positions compared to writing continuously and rolling options every thirty days. This proprietary process has been developed over many years through various market cycles. The Manager believes the primary benefit to investors is to maximize the total return of the particular portfolio while reducing the level of volatility of the portfolio, thereby increasing the risk-adjusted return.

These financial statements were approved by the Board of Advisors on August 11, 2014.

2. Basis of Presentation and Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards

The semi-annual financial statements for the Fund have been prepared in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as published by the International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

The Fund has adopted IFRS accounting policies for the year beginning January 1, 2014 as required by Canadian securities legislation and the Canadian Accounting Standards Board. Previously, the Fund prepared its financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (“Canadian GAAP”). The Fund has consistently applied the accounting policies used in the preparation of its opening IFRS statement of financial position at January 1, 2013 and throughout all periods presented, as if these accounting policies had always been in effect. Note 5 discloses the impact of the transition to IFRS on the Fund’s reported financial position, financial performance and cash flows, including the nature and effect of significant changes in accounting policies from those used in the Fund’s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013 prepared under Canadian GAAP.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Functional and Presentation Currency

Items included in the financial statements of the Fund are measured in the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Fund operates (the “functional currency”). The Fund’s portfolio is predominately United States and Non-North American securities and the functional currency is U.S. dollars. The financial statements of the Fund are presented in Canadian dollars which is the Fund’s presentation currency.

Financial Instruments

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for assets. The Fund's investments and derivatives within the portfolio are held for trading and measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL").

Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value of financial assets and liabilities traded in active markets are based on quoted market prices at the close of trading on the reporting date. On adoption of IFRS, the Fund uses the last traded market price as its valuation input for financial assets and liabilities if the last traded price falls within the bid-ask spread. In other circumstances where the last traded price is not within the bid-ask spread, the Manager determines the point within the bid-ask spread that is most representative of fair value for financial reporting purposes.

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities that are not traded in an active market is determined by valuation techniques as described in Note 4.

Investment Transactions and Income

Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade date basis. Net realized gain/loss on investments at fair value through profit or loss and change in unrealized appreciation/depreciation of investments at fair value through profit or loss are determined on an average cost basis. Realized gains and losses relating to written options may arise from:

- (i) Expiration of written options whereby realized gains are equivalent to the premium received,
- (ii) Exercise of written covered call options whereby realized gains or losses are equivalent to the premium received in addition to the realized gain or loss from disposition of the related investments at the exercise price of the option, and
- (iii) Closing of written options whereby realized gains or losses are equivalent to the cost of purchasing options to close the positions, net of any premium received.

Realized gains and losses related to options are included in net realized gain/ (loss) on options at fair value through profit or loss. Realized gains and losses relating to purchased put options may arise from:

- (i) Expiration of purchased put options whereby realized losses are equivalent to the premium paid,
- (ii) Exercise of purchased put options whereby realized gains or losses are equivalent to the realized gain or loss from disposition of the related investments at the exercise price of the option less the premium paid, and
- (iii) Sale of purchased put options whereby realized gains or losses are equivalent to the sale proceeds, net of any premium paid.

Option premiums received are reflected as deferred credits in investments so long as the options are outstanding. Any difference resulting from revaluation is included in the change in unrealized appreciation/depreciation of investments at fair value through profit or loss. The premiums received on written put options that are exercised are included in the cost of the security purchased.

Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Interest income is measured using the effective interest method and recorded on a daily basis.

Foreign Currency Translation

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the prevailing rate of exchange on each valuation date. Purchases and sales of investments, and income derived from investments, are translated at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions.

Foreign exchange gains (losses) on short-term investments are reflected as interest income (loss). Realized gains (losses) relating to forward exchange contracts are included in net realized gain/ (loss) on forward exchange contracts at fair value through profit or loss. Other foreign exchange gains (losses) are recorded as realized or unrealized gain (loss) on investments at fair value through profit or loss, as appropriate.

Short-Term Investments

Short-term investments are held for investment purposes are purchased in an active market with original maturities of less than one year.

Increase/(Decrease) in Net Assets Attributable to Equity Holders

The increase/(decrease) in net assets attributable to equity holders per unit is calculated by dividing the increase/(decrease) in net assets attributable to equity holders by the weighted average number of units outstanding during the period. Please refer to Note 12 for the calculation.

Taxation

The Fund is a “mutual fund trust” as defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the “Act”). The Fund is subject to tax in each taxation year under Part I of the Act on the amount of its income for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it claims in respect of the amount paid or payable to unitholders in the year. Income tax paid by the Fund on any net realized capital gains not paid or payable to unitholders is recoverable by the Fund to the extent and in the circumstances provided in the Act. Given the investment and distribution policies of the Fund and taking into account expenses, the Fund does not expect to bear any appreciable non-refundable income tax.

4. Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of financial statements requires management to use judgement in applying accounting policies and to make estimates and assumptions about the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The following discusses the most significant accounting judgments and estimates that the Fund has made in preparing the financial statements.

In classifying and measuring the financial instruments held by the Fund, the Manager determined that the Fund invests on a total return basis for the purpose of applying the fair value option for financial assets under IAS 39, Financial Instruments - Recognition and Measurement. The portfolio investments are held for trading and valued at FVTPL accordingly.

The Fund may, from time to time, hold financial instruments that are not quoted in active markets. Fair values of such instruments are determined by using valuation models and techniques generally recognized as standard within the investment industry. These valuation methods use observable data as practicable as possible. Observable market data are readily available and supplied by independent sources actively involved in the relevant market. However, areas such as credit risk (both own and counterparty) and its correlations require the Manager to make estimates. Significant changes in assumptions about these factors could adversely affect the reported fair values of financial instruments. Please refer to Note 7 for a further analysis of risks associated with financial instruments.

5. Transition to IFRS

The effect of the Fund's transition to IFRS is summarized as follows:

Transition Elections

No financial asset or liability at FVTPL was designated at inception by way of voluntary exemption. Based on the investment strategies adopted by the Fund, securities in the portfolio are classified as held for trading and therefore required to be at FVTPL.

Statement of Cash Flows

Under Canadian GAAP, the Fund was exempt from providing a statement of cash flows. IAS 1 requires that a complete set of financial statements include a statement of cash flows for the current and comparative periods, without exception.

Reconciliation of Net Assets and Comprehensive Income as previously reported under Canadian GAAP to IFRS

| | Dec. 31, 2013 | June 30, 2013 | Jan. 1, 2013 |
|--|------------------|------------------|-----------------|
| Net Assets | | | |

| Revaluation of investments at FVTPL | 4,789 | 14,286 | 32,255 |
| Net Assets Attributable to Equity Holders | $ 7,920,141 | $ 9,013,957 | $ 15,706,227 |

| | June 30, 2013 |
|---|------------------|
| Comprehensive Income | |
| Comprehensive Income as reported under Canadian GAAP | $ (4,535,216) |
| Revaluation of investments at FVTPL | (17,969) |
| Decrease in Net Assets Attributable to Equity Holders | $ (4,553,185) |

Under Canadian GAAP, the Fund measured the fair values of its investments in accordance with Section 3855, Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurement, which is determined by the closing bid price for long positions and by the closing ask price for short positions from the recognized stock exchange on which the securities are listed or principally traded. If no bid or ask prices are available, the securities are valued at the closing sale price or the Manager may estimate fair value using appropriate and accepted industry valuation techniques including valuation models. Under IFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement, the fair value of investments is to be based on a price within the bid-ask spread. It also allows the use of certain pricing conventions such as last traded prices as a practical expedient for fair value measurements within a bid-ask spread. As a result of the use of last traded prices upon IFRS transition, adjustments were recognized to increase the carrying amount of the Fund's investments by $32,255 as at January 1, 2013 and $4,789 as at December 31, 2013. Another impact of fair value adjustments was to decrease the Fund's increase/(decrease) in net assets attributable to equity holders by $17,969 for the six months ended June 30, 2013.

Reclassification Adjustments

The Fund reclassified withholding taxes from the total revenue section to the total expenses section in the Statement of Comprehensive Income upon transition in order to conform to the financial statement presentation under IFRS.

6. Capital Disclosures

IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements, requires the disclosure of: (i) an entity's objectives, policies and processes for managing capital; (ii) quantitative data and qualitative information about what the entity regards as capital; (iii) whether the entity has complied with any capital requirements; and (iv) if it has not complied, the consequences of such non-compliance. The Fund's objectives, policies and processes are described in Note 1, information on the Fund's units is described in Note 9 and the trust indenture does not have any externally imposed capital requirements.

7. Risks Associated with Financial Instruments

The Fund is exposed to various types of risks that are associated with its investment strategies, financial instruments and markets in which it invests. The most important risks include credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk and price risk), concentration risk and capital risk management.

Tables are based on restatements of values of financial assets at fair value through profit and loss and unrealized appreciation/depreciation of investments as at December 31, 2013 and January 1, 2013 to comply with IFRS. Note 5 discloses the transition adjustments.

Credit Risk

The Fund is subject to the credit risk that its counterparty (whether a clearing corporation, in the case of exchange traded instruments, or other third party, in the case of over-the-counter instruments) may be unable to meet its obligations.

The Fund is also exposed to counterparty credit risk on derivative financial instruments. The counterparty credit risk for derivative financial instruments is managed by dealing with counterparties that have a credit rating that is not below the level of approved credit ratings as set out in National Instrument 81-102. During the periods ended June 30, 2014, December 31, 2013 and January 1, 2013, the counterparties to the Fund's derivative financial instruments had a credit rating of A-1 or higher from Standard & Poor's Ratings Services.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the possibility that investments in the Fund cannot be readily converted into cash when required. To manage this risk, the Fund invests the majority of its assets in investments that are traded in an active market and which can be easily disposed. In addition, the Fund aims to retain sufficient cash and short-term investments to maintain liquidity and to meet its obligations when due.

Cash is required to fund redemptions. Unitholders must surrender units at least 10 business days prior to the last day of the month and receive payment on or before 15 calendar days following the month end valuation date. Therefore the Fund has a maximum of 21 business days to generate sufficient cash to fund redemptions mitigating liquidity issues.

The amounts in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows:

Market Risk

The Fund's investments are subject to market risk which is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in the market prices. The following include sensitivity analyses that show how the net assets attributable to equity holders would have been affected by a reasonably possible change in the relevant risk variable at each reporting date. In practice, the actual results may differ and the differences could be material.

(a) Currency Risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The portfolio includes securities and options denominated in foreign currencies. The net asset value of the Fund and the value of the dividends and option premiums received by the Fund will be affected by fluctuations in the value of the foreign currencies relative to the Canadian dollar. The Fund uses forward exchange contracts to actively hedge the majority of its foreign currency exposure

The table below indicates the foreign currencies to which the Fund had significant exposure to as at June 30, 2014, December 31, 2013 and January 1, 2013 in CAD terms, and the notional amounts of foreign exchange forward contracts. The table also illustrates the potential impact on the net assets attributable to equity holders if CAD dollar had strengthened or weakened by 5 percent in relation to each of the other currencies, with all other variables held constant.

(b) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that changes in interest rates will adversely affect the fair value of a financial instrument. The financial instruments which potentially expose the Fund to interest rate risk are the short-term fixed income securities. The Fund has minimal sensitivity to changes in rates since securities are usually held to maturity and are short-term in nature.

(c) Price Risk

Price risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk), whether caused by factors specific to an individual investment, its issuer, or all factors affecting all instruments traded in a market or segment. The Fund's most significant exposure to price risk arises from its investments in equity securities. Net assets per unit varies as the value of the securities in the Fund varies. The Fund has no control over the factors that affect the value of the securities in the Fund, including factors that affect all the companies in the global gold mining industry.

The Fund's price risk is managed by taking a long-term perspective and utilizing an option writing program, as well as by the use of purchased put options. Approximately 97 percent (December 31, 2013 - 83 percent and January 1, 2013 - 97 percent) of the Fund's net assets attributable to equity holders held at June 30, 2014 were publicly traded equities. If equity prices on the exchange increased or decreased by 5 percent as at June 30, 2014, the net assets attributable to equity holders would have increased or decreased by $0.3M (December 31, 2013 - $0.3M and January 1, 2013 - $0.8M) respectively or 4.9 percent (December 31, 2013 - 4.2 percent and January 1, 2013 - 4.9 percent) of the net assets attributable to equity holders all other factors remaining constant. In practice, actual trading results may differ and the difference could be material.

Concentration Risk

Concentration risk arises as a result of the concentration of exposures with the same category, whether it is geographical location, product type, industry sector or counterparty type. The following is a summary of the Fund's concentration risk:

Capital Risk Management

Unitholders whose units are redeemed on a January Redemption Date will be entitled to receive a redemption price per unit equal to the net asset value per unit determined as of such date.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2014

For unitholders whose units are redeemed on any other Redemption Date, the redemption price per unit will be equal to the lesser of: (i) 95 percent of the Market Price and; (ii) 100 percent of the Closing Market Price of the units on the applicable Redemption Date, minus an amount equal to the aggregate of all brokerage fees, commissions and other costs incurred by the Fund in connection with such payment, including, but not limited to, costs incurred in liquidating securities held in the Fund's portfolio. For such purposes, the "Closing Market Price" means the closing price of the units on the principal stock exchange on which the units are listed (or, if the units are not listed on any stock exchange, on the principal market on which the units are quoted for trading) or, if there was no trade on the relevant date, the average of the last bid and the last asking prices of the units on the principal stock exchange on which the units are listed (or, if the units are not listed on any stock exchange, on the principal market on which the units are quoted for trading).

Fair Value Measurement

The Fund classifies fair value of measurement within a hierarchy which gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2: Inputs, other than quoted prices in Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices), and

Level 3: Inputs that are based on unobservable market data.

The classification of an item into the above levels is based on the lowest level of the inputs used that has a significant effect on the fair value measurement of the item. Transfers of items between levels are recognized in the period they occur. The following table illustrates the classification of the Fund's assets and liabilities measured at fair value within the fair value hierarchy as at June 30, 2014, December 31, 2013 and January 1, 2013.

The carrying values of cash, dividends receivable, interest receivable, due to brokers - investments, accrued liabilities, due from brokers - investments and redemptions payable, and the Fund's obligation for net assets attributable to equity holders approximate their fair values due to their short-term nature.

(a) Equities

The Fund's equity positions are classified as Level 1 as equity securities are actively traded and a reliable quoted price is observable.

(b) Short-Term Investments

Short-term investments are valued at cost plus accrued interest which approximates fair value. The inputs are generally observable and therefore short-term investments have been classified as Level 2.

(c) Derivative Assets and Liabilities

Derivative assets and liabilities consist of forward exchange contracts and option contracts.

Listed options are classified as Level 1 as the security is traded in a recognized exchange and a reliable price is readily observable.

Fair value of over-the-counter options is determined using the Black-Scholes Model with observable market data as inputs. Forward exchange contracts are valued on the gain or loss that would be realized if, on the valuation date, the position in the forward exchange contract, as the case may be, was to be closed out. Over-the-counter option and forward exchange contracts, for which the credit risks are determined not to be significant to fair value, have been classified as Level 2.

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 during the six months ended June 30, 2014 and during the year ended December 31, 2013.

Based on the Manager's current understanding and analysis of IFRS 9, the transition to IFRS 9 will change the manner in which investments are disclosed with no impact to value.
